ISTANBUL TO BAKU

And Eastern Journal

Enter into the Grand Bazzar of this old city and one travels in time, back to the days of scents and sounds more like the 16th centurt than the 21st. Founded as Byzantium by Megarian colonists in 660 BCE, and renamed as Constantinople in 330 CE, the city grew in size and influence, becoming a beacon of the Silk Road and one of the most important cities in history. Over 13.4 million foreign visitors came to Istanbul in 2018, eight years after it was named a European Capital of Culture, making the city the world's fifth-most popular tourist destination. Istanbul is home to several UNESCO World Heritage Sites, and hosts the headquarters of the Grand Bazzar of this old city. Founded in the 5th millenium B.C. as Byzantium, the city
